- The bus station is part of the Nîmes train station (2 minutes walk at the back out the Glass Cube architecture – line 12 is the last and furthest away...)
- Let us know well in advance your bus arrival time at Thoiras Gare and we will send someone to fetch you. (5 minutes by car)
- Make sure you tell the bus driver to stop at “Gare de Thoiras”.
- Buses depart on time, but can arrive late (usually not more than 5 minutes.)

Nîmes : RyanAir has daily flights to Nîmes (form London Luton, Liverpool and Brussels) + buses to Nîmes station – check <http://www.nimes-aeroport.fr/fr/page/navettes-acces-parking.>)

From Montpellier you must either take a taxi, expensive, or make your way to Nîmes by train (bus to train station and train to Nîmes).

Marseille airport can work out better than Montpellier airport. There are 3 or 4 daily direct trains from Marseille Airport to Nîmes (1 hour 10 minutes, 17 euros) Its a question of getting the good connections.
